Kim's Big Day!

The dress!
The cake! The
A-list guests! Kim Kardashian's wedding to Kris Humphries is going to be one fabulous — and fantastically expensive — extravaganza.
Star has all the details.

"Kim wants to feel like a princess," a family friend says. "Although she's been married before, Kim feels like this is her first time walking down the aisle — and she wants everything to be exquisite and luxurious!"

WATCH out, William and Kate! The royal couple's fairy-tale wedding may have been an affair to remember, but Kim Kardashian is determined to give the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge a run for their money with her Aug. 20 marriage to basketball star Kris Humphries, 26

"Kim has put together the most glamorous and expensive wedding anyone has seen in ages," a family friend tells Star. "She's sparing no expense to make sure everything is first class all the way!"

For her big day, Kim, 30, is pulling out all the stops, starting with her elegant Lehr & Black invitations, which arrived in a box adorned with hundreds of black hematite crystals. And she's splashing out millions to enlist the best of the best — including world-famous designer Vera Wang, who's creating a custom gown expected to set Kim back a whopping $50,000, and renowned makeup artist Mario Dedivanovic to send her down the aisle in style. "I've envisioned what [Kim] would look like as a bride ever since I began working with her," Dedivanovic reveals.

"And I finally get to bring that vision of beauty to life!"

L.A.-based celebrity event planner Sarah Lowy of JOWY Productions predicts that the $20 million celebration — which will air on E! in October during a two-part special — will be Hollywood's answer to the royal wedding. "Based on what we know about the Kardashians, expect to see something very personalized to the couple," Lowy tells Star. "A customized tent with over-the-top details, extravagant décor with a classic, white look, larger-than-life flowers, beautiful crystal and china — and lots of bling!"

The One-Of-A-Kind Dress

Kim is staying tight-lipped about her extraordinary Vera Wang gown. But Star's own sketch artist illustrates the perfect Vera-style look for the beautiful bride-to-be! "Kim told Vera she wanted the most expensive and fantastic dress she had ever made," the family friend reveals.

The Luxe Location

Kim reserved rooms for her guests at the Four Seasons Biltmore in ritzy Montecito, Calif. (pictured), but a family friend reveals that the Kardashian clan and wedding party are staying at the nearby San Ysidro Ranch, where private cottages go for $5,500 a night!

During a July 29 visit to L.A.'s Hansens Cakes, the lovebirds sampled chocolate, vanilla and lemon confections before settling on a 10-tier white cake with chocolate-chip icing and black-and-white trim. Kim wants it designed to resemble Will and Kate's royal wedding dessert (inset).
